OCT. 10: VIDEO PREMIERE AT UD TO FEATURE LOCAL TEACHERS

The premiere showing of "The Whole Language Movement: From Teacher to Teacher," a videotape about the popular whole language method of teaching, will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, in the Kennedy Union East Ballroom at the University of Dayton.

The videotape was produced for national distribution by Patricia Hart, assistant professor of teacher education at UD. It explains the concepts of the whole language movement, a grass-roots movement by teachers who use children's literature and creative writing in the classroom to tie together different subjects the students are exploring.

Local teachers featured in the videotape are Regina Oglesbee of the Centerville school district, Beth Stephens of the Fairborn district and Becky Brunsman and Shanna Winks of the Yellow Springs school system. Centerville administrator Pat Buckingham is also included in the video.

For more information, call Patricia Hart at (513) 229-3304.

OCT 11: MEMORIAL MASS TO BE HELD FOR THE REV. RAYMOND ROESCH

A memorial Mass for the Rev. Raymond Roesch, S.M., former president of the University of Dayton and a 1936 graduate, will be held at 4:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11, in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on campus.

Roesch, who served as UD president from 1959-79, died July 7 while many members of the University community were away from campus. At the time of his death from an apparent heart attack, he was helping to raise funds and to prepare materials for a written history of the University in preparation for UD's 150th anniversary in 2000. Donations to the University in his name will be used to help underwrite the three-year $50,000 research project and history book. Upon its completion, the book will be dedicated to Roesch.
